

Fortune 500 corporations... Top universities & colleges... Oscar winning celebrities... Legendary athletes... Who do they go to for entertainment and motivation?

Whether in a board room or a college auditorium, Scott Xavier is the "Cure for the Common Entertainer"... GUARANTEED!

It's a proven fact that happy and mentally stimulated individuals learn and work 10 X harder than normal. Being one of the top speakers on the powers of the mind and how to motivate the mind for success in business, Scott has created a unique blend of mentalism and theater to present PSI: forensic Mind Stunts.

In this unique entertainment, Scott Xavier presents an interactive 60 minute presentation of various "REAL" mind powers including: psychological profiling, mind reading, gambling cons, hand writing analysis, predictive behavior analysis, character analysis, and even more far fetched abilities such as mind over metal spoon and fork bending.

Using real life science learned while working in an Illinois Forensics Laboratory, Scott mixes generous amounts of applied psychology, mind power, subliminal language influence, non-verbal communication skills, and a heap of mind illusions allow Scott Xavier to appear to be a Psychic Detective solving and influencing choices using the powers of the mind.

Gambling Cons- E.S. Andrews created a world of cons and gambling mystery using proven techniques of the cheats. Now Scott Xavier takes you to the new level of cheats, mental influence and body language. Gambling, numbers, and mind reading is explored.

Influenced- Witness the techniques of serial killers and bank robbers to control the actions of their victims using language and suggestion techniques!

Mind'usional- Experience real mind reading wrapped in a game of a psychic murder mystery!

Beyond- Some charming con men would have you believe in the beyond and mysteries of pseudo-science. Scott presents sixth sense x-ray eye demonstration and psychokinetic metal bending.
